Proven Success Across Federal, State & Local, and Commercial Markets

Johnson Controls (Commercial)

Johnson Controls, a global multi-industrial company, implemented Meridian LMS to streamline training for external customers, partners, and distributors. The LMS enabled Johnson Controls to deliver training more efficiently, increase revenue through ecommerce capabilities, and meet the diverse needs of its global network of technicians and resellers. The customizable domain functionality and multilingual support provided a solution that aligned with the company's business goals and expanded training initiatives.

City of Fort Lauderdale (State & Local)

The City of Fort Lauderdale utilized Meridian LMS to improve workforce training and ensure regulatory compliance for over 2,000 employees. With the ability to deliver internal and community-focused training, the city enhanced its service delivery and boosted employee engagement. Meridian's flexible platform supported the city's workforce development goals while simplifying compliance management across various departments.

Federal Agencies (Federal)

Meridian has a proven history of successfully implementing LMS solutions for Federal Civilian, Department of Defense, and Intelligence agencies, addressing critical challenges such as federal compliance, accessibility, and seamless integration with robust partner solutions. Our LMS delivers secure and scalable training programs tailored to the specific needs of government organizations, helping them enhance employee development while maintaining compliance with evolving regulations and standards.
